B. & O. RAILROAD

Making a Survey Along Big Sandy River.

Rumors of a New Railroad Line in This Valley Revived by This Action.

A Baltimore & Ohio engineering corps of nine persons arrived here last Sunday night and began operations the following day. The party has quarters at the Brunswick and will, so it is said, be in this section of the country about three weeks. The engineers began work in the John Bartram bottom near Fort Gay, W. Va.

Speculation is rife concerning this late move of the B. & O. The following from the Huntington Dispatch has an air of probability and is interesting. The work now being done by the corps near Fort Gay may be part of the survey mentioned in the Huntington paper:

"Having completed their survey of a railroad right of way for a great distance up Symmes creek from its mouth, the engineers of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad have moved to the Big Sandy valley, and are now engaged in running a preliminary survey from Kenova to Shelby Gap. Both sides of the Big Sandy river are being surveyed, and it is believed that a line of railroad extending from Huntington to the holdings of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad about Jenkins, Ky., will be built in the not distant future.

The rumor has been afloat in this city for some time that such a survey was contemplated, and it has been known for some time that the line up Symmes creek was practically completed. Yesterday evening Mr. Richard Mather, assistant engineer of the Baltimore & Ohio with offices in this city, was questioned in regard to the matter, and confirmed the rumor that the engineers of the B. and O. are now at work in the Sandy river valley near Louisa.

The importance of this movement of the B. and O. engineers is readily apparent in the light of the battle which has been waged between railroads through this section for a right of way from the enormous coal fields in Kentucky to the great lakes. Almost a score of surveys have been made over all possible routes to find an advantageous outlet for the Kentucky coal to the northern markets. The B. & O. railroad now has a line built from Shelby Gap to Jenkins, Ky., in the very heart of the new coal field, and a line from Kenova to Jenkins probably means that the B. & O. intends to bridge the Ohio river at this point and build a continuous line through Huntington and up the Symmes creek valley to one of the ports on the great lakes.

It will probably be some time before the definite plans of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad can be known, but it is definitely settled that a line will be built from Kenova to Shelby Gap along one of the routes as laid off by the engineers now at work in that section."

HALLOWEEN AFFAIR.

There will be a Halloween affair on the night of Thursday, Oct. 31, which will not do any damage to your gates or fences, neither to your signs nor your porch chairs. This party has designs on your pocketbooks only and will give you full value in the way of pumpkin pie, hot lads, Koffy and so forth. The instigators are the members of the Young People's Missionary Society of the M. E. Church South, and they will meet you at the Henry Evans new store building, near depot, Halloween, Oct. 31.

Early on last Monday night fire at Heiler destroyed several thousand dollars worth of property before it burned itself out. The residence of John Ratcliff, and Odd Fellows hall, Bartley & Son's store, a barber shop, Bartley and Ratcliff's store and some other buildings were burned to the ground.

MIL STEWART'S SPEECH.

Hon. J. W. M. Stewart, of Ashland, Democratic presidential elector for this district, spoke at the court house in Louisa last Monday to a large audience. He was given a most attentive hearing and spoke an hour and forty-five minutes.

The speech was fair to all parties, full of logic, and so clear that everyone in the audience understood every point. The tariff and the trusts were the chief subjects discussed. Indisputable facts and their relation to the people present brought these two greatest issues home to the audience in a way that was extremely convincing. The speech was full of "meat" from start to finish. There was no abuse.

Mr. Stewart's reference to the great ability of Woodrow Wilson and his power as a public speaker was an interesting statement to many. He attended a big dinner on Jackson's Day in Washington last January and heard Mr. Wilson's address, along with the greatest orators of the country, Mr. Bryan included. Mr. Stewart declares that from every standpoint—eloquence, substance, oratory—it was the greatest speech he has ever heard. Mr. Stewart went to that dinner favoring the nomination of one of the other candidates for the presidential nomination, but came away with a different feeling and with the realization that Wilson is one of the country's greatest men.

Mr. Stewart's audience was largely composed of country people, and it was the largest gathering that has been out to hear a political speech at Louisa this year.

Attended The Convention.

Supt. Jay O'Daniel and about 25 Lawrence county teachers attended the Educational Convention at Prestonsburg last Friday and Saturday. The general attendance was very large, there having been in the neighborhood of 400 teachers present. It was much the largest meeting of this character ever held in the Big Sandy valley, and the proceedings were very interesting.

FREE AGRICULTURE SCHOOL

At Louisa Nov. 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th.

THE NEWS calls attention to the Extension School which will be held in the court house November 6, 7, 8 and 9. This is not a farmer's institute but a school of instruction in husbandry, stock raising and kindred things, taught by members of the faculty of the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station. It has been held in the Western part of the State and has been enthusiastically and numerous attended. Keep this announcement in mind, the NEWS will say more about it next week.

Important Grand Lodge Meeting.

The Kentucky Grand Lodge of Masons has taken a stand against the handling of liquors as a trade by any of its members. "Retailing of spirituous liquors has become so abused as to become a great evil in the social life of our country," are the words of one of those taking part in the discussion. Grand Master David Jackson, in his annual report, stated that a lodge which would attempt to promote a man engaged in the retail liquor business would be suspended. The matter grew out of the question as to the promotion of a man who engaged in the liquor business after attaining the First degree. It declared he could not be promoted.

REMOVAL OF TUMOR.

Mr. Henry Will, of Henver creek, Floyd county, is several pounds lighter to-day than when he left home a few days ago and came to Louisa. The difference in weight is the result of the removal of a fatty tumor which had grown on his left side and made life a burden. On Monday last the removal was accomplished by Dr. T. D. Burgess, Dr. G. W. Wroten assisting. Mr. Will was accompanied to this city by a brother, and they will probably return home this week.

THREE DEATHS.

Natives of Lawrence County Pass Away.

Isaac Hays, Jacob Peters and N. B. McGuire are the Victims of the Fall.

One of the landmarks of Lawrence county was removed on the night of Monday, October 21, when death claimed Isaac Hays, who lacked but a few days of attaining the ripe old age of 85 years. He died at his home near the head of Brushy, where he had lived since his marriage. He had a complication of diseases and had been confined to the house, mostly to the bed, for four years. Mr. Hays was buried Wednesday near his old home place. He is survived by a widow and two sons—Bazil, who lives in Kansas, and Lum, who lives on Little Blaine, and by two daughters—Mrs. Angeline Childress and Mrs. Vashti Kise. There are also three brothers living—Andy, John, and Al. of this city, and one sister, Mrs. Lila Travis. The living half brothers are Arch, Milt, Walt, Mathew, Mart, Hardin and Lige, one half sister, Mrs. Trinitia Wellman. He had altogether 26 half brothers and sisters. Twenty years ago Mr. Hays had a large tombstone, with the names of himself and wife carved upon it, set up on the spot he had selected for his burial. "Uncle Ike," as he was familiarly called was a good man and citizen. He was a member of the Baptist church, liked and respected by all who knew him. He was an ardent Democrat. It is said that the last time he left his home he went to the polls and cast his vote for Bryan four years ago.

Mr. J. L. Peters died at Colorado Springs Oct. 22, while on the operating table undergoing what was considered a slight operation for an infection of the lower jaw. The remains will arrive here Friday evening at 5:24. The funeral will be held from the Christian church at 1 p. m. Saturday. Vinson Lodge, assisted by Apperson Lodge A. F. & A. M., will have charge of the burial rites. Interment will be at this place. Mr. Peters was 64 years old. He was the son of Jacob Peters and wife and was born at the old Peters home on Three Mile. He is survived by his widow and five children—Frank, of Bluefield, W. Va., Sam, of Athens, Ala., Mrs. Viola Bryna, of Logan, Mrs. Sarah McDaniel, and Mrs. George A. Atkinson, of this city. Two sisters are living—Mrs. Atwell Wellman, of Louisa, and Mrs. Melissa Smith, of Kenova. The surviving brothers are James and Breck, of Louisa, Mike, of Kansas, John and Will, of near Ft. Gay, and Noah, of Breathitt county. For some time past Mr. Peters had lived at Logan, W. Va., but a short time ago he went to Colorado for the purpose of making that State his home. Mrs. Peters remained here with her daughter, Mrs. Atkinson, expecting to join her husband as soon as he had finished his preparations for their new home, and the unexpected news of his death came as a great shock.

"Jake" Peters was well and favorably known all through this section. He came of a prominent family, and by his marriage to a daughter of the late Frank Vinson he became related to very many other well known people. He was a good citizen, devoted to his family, liked and respected by all who knew him. His untimely decease, far from home and family, is greatly deplored.

Nick McGuire, son of Luke McGuire, deceased, and Mrs. James Calvin Frazier, was admitted to Riverview hospital in the early part of July last, suffering with blood poisoning, and died there early on the morning of October 24, the 35th anniversary of his birth. Interment will probably be made Friday in the old McGuire burial ground near the mouth of Two Mile. He is survived by his widow and four young sons, his mother, Mrs. James Calvin Frazier, and a brother, George, who is a fireman on the N. & W. railway. He was a nephew of Mrs. Kate R. Freese, of Toronto, O., and of Mrs. Elliott Arnett, of Spalding, W. Va. He suffered greatly during his long illness, and death came as a relief.

ENFORCED THE LAW.

After due trial a man was fined five dollars and costs in Judge Boggs' court on Monday last for failing and refusing to send his children to the public school. A full account of the case is in the school department of the NEWS this week. So far as can be learned this is the first case of the kind to be tried in the county this season, and it is sincerely hoped there will never be another. Illiteracy in this State is to be ashamed of, and the people should use every possible effort to aid those who are endeavoring to educate the children. It costs parents nothing to send their children to the public schools, but ignorance costs the people much. School officials are seriously in earnest in the matter of compelling attendance, and those who persist in permitting their children to run at large like so many animals, or to remain in ignorance at home, would better take heed.

ANOTHER OIL WELL.

The United Fuel Gas Company is completing a well today on the Betty Pigg tract on which it has been carrying a lease for a year or more. Reports from the well say the showing is good. The Norwood and Sullivan-Mayo wells are not yet completed, but are due within a few days.

MARRIED IN MINNESOTA.

Cards announcing the marriage of Miss Anna Belle Johns to Mr. Geo. Logan, of Litchfield, Minn., October sixteenth. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Boone Johns and niece of Mrs. Belle McClellan, former Lawrence county people and well known in Louisa, where they left many friends and relatives.

FARMERS INSTITUTE.

Held Here Last Week Had Small Attendance.

Please notice the omission of the word Farmer's. The promised instructors were here, but for all the agriculturists who attended the school it might have been called any kind of an institute. The weather was fine, farm work at this season is not pressing, and nothing but a want of inclination kept our former friends from attending, and they missed much which would have proved interesting and valuable to them. The lecturers were Mrs. H. B. Walcott, of Shelbyville, Ky., Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain, of Irvington, Ky., Mr. Stanley F. Morse, of Northboro, Mass., and Charles D. Lewis, of Berea, this State. These people are well versed in the different lines of agriculture, stock raising and the business of household management, and the court house should have been filled with farmers and housekeepers, but it wasn't.

It is a deplorable fact that the average farmer in Lawrence county doesn't care to learn scientific farming. At the Farmer's Institute held in the court house Friday Oct. 18, there were only 15 farmers present. The Big Sandy News had printed notices of the meeting, hand bills had been distributed generally over the county, and yet there was a meager attendance. It seems to an observer that the only hope of arousing any interest in this, and surrounding counties, in better farming, is to begin with the boys and girls, and to do so, in the common schools of the county. The lectures were splendid but were made to vacant seats. If we have about lost hope of interesting the mature manhood of the county in these vital matters, we must urge upon the proper authorities to have the common school teacher, as part of the common school course, teach the children how to bring back the original fertility of the soil.

POLITICAL FACTS.

Matters of Interest to Every Citizen of This Country.

Put No Confidence in Calamity Howls.

The Republican Campaign Committee has issued a calamity howl which tries to prove that the election of Cleveland caused the panic of 1893 and the consequent hard times which followed. Of course this statement is false. Legislation by the Republicans which required the purchase of a large amount of silver each month and other equally as bad, together with a faulty financial system, caused the upheaval which Cleveland was powerless to prevent.

Arguing from such untenable grounds, we suppose this aggregation will charge the panic of 1907 to the Democrats although Roosevelt was President and the Republicans were in control of every branch of the government. Then, as before, it was bad legislation and an archaic banking and currency system which were responsible.

The country is at present enjoying unparalleled prosperity in spite of, not because, of Republican administrative policies. A gracious Providence has given the husbandman great return for his labor. The gold production is $96,890,000 this year, larger than ever before in the history of the country, save in one year only, and the abundant diffusion of prosperity thereby caused has put the whole machinery of business in motion.

It is just as reasonable to claim that the rains and the seasonable weather are due to Republican rule as that it is responsible for the present prosperity. The high protective tariff would have produced another panic but for these natural causes. The calamity howlers are only howling for another chance at the home.

"Let Well Enough Alone."

"Let well enough alone" exclaims President Taft, and the whole pack of stand-patters and those who are fattening on governmental favoritism yell in unison. "Let well enough alone" is always the cry of the selfish. Well enough is never really true and in the present case it is glaring mendacity. A tariff which enriches a few at the expense of many is not well enough. It is indeed highway robbery to tax food stuffs and other necessities of life so that prices are put on them almost out of the reach of the poor.

When the high protective tariff enables trusts and manufacturers to sell meats, machines and other articles at a lower price in Europe than they do at home it is not well enough. Nor is it well enough when the protected industries pay their employees pauper wages while fattening on their labor. There is nothing well enough about the Aldrich Tariff law. When a Democratic President reduces it in the interest of the consumer it will be well enough. That time seems near at hand. The common people have a chance to be heard. Let every Democrat and other patriotic man do his duty and when the people get their innuagie it will be time enough to cry "Let well enough alone."

Democratic Program.

To reduce first the tariff on the necessities of life, put it higher on luxuries, repeal it on all articles sold cheaper abroad than at home, with a gradual reduction of the whole list to a revenue only basis is the program of the Democratic party as promulgated at Baltimore. Such a program ought to, and does, appeal to every man to whom the increased price of food and clothing is an appealing fact. The Republican plan of forcing people to pay more taxes than are necessary for economically administered government is a crime which admits of no defense since the tax on many articles enables the trusts to put up prices and extort money from the people and pay little to the support of the government.

The tariff is the paramount issue of the campaign and upon their promises with regard to it the Democrats are riding to certain victory. The interests have too long been monopolizing control of the government. The old and exploded claim of the Republicans that the consumer does not pay the tariff taxes no longer fools sensible people. Their pocketbooks have felt the weight of the absurdity and they will vote to change a system of taxation which breeds monopoly, encourages graft and enables a few to grow rich at the expense of the many. They know that a vote for Governor Wilson and the Democratic candidates for Congress assures the much needed change.

Almost Unanimous.

After a pretty thorough canvass of the country by its own agents and those of the other papers allied with it, the Cincinnati Enquirer finds that Taft will carry but two states—Utah and Vermont. Roosevelt is given three, Idaho, Michigan and Washington, and Wilson the rest after placing Connecticut, Delaware, Maine, Montana, North Dakota, Oregon, Vermont and Wyoming in the doubtful list. This will give Wilson 460 votes in the electoral college when only 267 is required to elect. The forecast is almost as bright as that of Ollie James, who says he cannot figure that Wilson will lose a single state.

Stop The Extortion.

Governor Wilson's election will insure a Democratic House and in all probability a Democratic Senate to carry out his policies of progressive reform and then there will be no further delay in the people's demands. They will no longer be thwarted by the vetoes of a President who is hound hand and foot to the interests on the most insignificant pretext. The tariff will be reduced to the necessities of an economically administered government and high prices for food and clothing will cease.

Rallying To Wilson.

Democracy made a notable gain when United States Senator Works, of California, a few days ago declared for Wilson and called on all his friends to do likewise. He has always been a wheelhorse Republican, with his leaning recently for Progressiveness, and might have supported Roosevelt but for the fraudulent manner in which his electors in California were obtained, though he does not regard Roosevelt as a real Progressive, being animated more by ambition and malice than a desire to secure Progressive legislation for the country. With Wilson as the only real Progressive the only course for honest Republicans, who are Progressives, to pursue is to vote for the Democratic nominee. The Wilson National Progressive League is daily receiving notable accessions. The number now exceeds 50,000 and it has headquarters in all the large cities. The whole trend of the country is toward Democratic principles and there seems nothing so sure as that Wilson will be elected. He cannot fail to be if every Democrat does his duty.

Grand Final Rally.

The Democratic Campaign Committee is arranging for a final rally at each of the county seats in the state at 2 p. m. Saturday, November 2nd, and wherever it is practicable speakers will go over the counties in automobiles Thursday and Friday before to advise these events. The County Chairman and Precinct Committees are expected to be on hand and after the speaking will hold a final conference to devise ways and means to promote the cause and get out the full vote.

During these two last weeks of the campaign a whirlwind of speaking will be made all over the state and nothing will be left undone to get out the largest vote for Wilson ever recorded in the state.

If speakers can be obtained there will be a rally at Louisa. Announcement will be made by posters if arrangements are made.

Mrs. Skaggs Submits To Operation.

On Tuesday last Mrs. Jerome Skaggs, of this city, submitted to a very serious operation. She has been in bad health for some time, and it was decided that an operation was all that could be done to give permanent relief. This was successfully performed on Tuesday last by Dr. J. A. Wellman, assisted by Dr. J. C. Bussey. The operation was a hazardous and difficult one, but at this time Mrs. Skaggs seems to be doing well.

As a result of racial troubles at Coalmoat, a mining town near Tracy City, Tenn., one negro is dead and two others wounded, and one white man is injured. Over 200 shots were fired in the clash before officers succeeded in restoring order.

Multitudes under umbrellas heard Gov. Wilson in car-platform speeches through West Virginia and Western Pennsylvania. The only address of the day, at Pittsburgh, closed the tour. He refrained from discussing the third party or its leader out of deference to Col. Roosevelt, devoting himself to tariff wrongs and trust rule.

Cadiz.—What is believed to be the largest pear ever grown in Kentucky was exhibited here last week at the Stock Show by William Summer, of the Maggie precinct. It was the "Douchess" pear, and weighed two pounds and three ounces, measured sixteen inches one way and fifteen and one-half the other, and was perfect in every respect.

Clinton.—We have seen a number of specimens of fine corn this fall, but none quite up to that brought to town Saturday by David Graham from his farm, southwest of town. He brought two stalks that were sixteen feet high, ten feet up to the point where the ear formed. One sample ear contained 1,120 grains and another 1,320 grains. The latter ear had twenty-two rows of grain, sixty grains to the row, and the other sixteen rows of grain and seventy grains to the row.

Louisville.—The sacred ceremony of the communion service one of the most impressive demonstrations of Christianity ever seen in Louisville, was held Sunday afternoon in the armory at the mass meeting of the Disciples of Christ. More than 5,000 people attended the service, eating the bread and drinking the wine symbolical of the body and blood of the Saviour.

The throngs began to arrive at 2:30 o'clock, and in half an hour almost every seat on the main floor was taken. Visitors and members of the various churches represented went into the long balcony, filling the seats until the congregation assembled became a great multitude, a multitude gathered together for a single purpose, with but one thought and one act, that of celebrating the Lord's Supper.

Lancaster.—Tom Yost, colored, who runs a lunch stand, finds himself in possession of a freak chicken, for when he has been offered a fancy price. A few days ago Yost bought two chickens from a farmer which he intended to use in his trade. One of them he killed, but when he started to slaughter the other he discovered that the fowl had no wings. Where the wings should have been there was a slight growth but no appearance of the members by which the fowl could fly.

Here in the State of Massachusetts, the very heart of New England and the birthplace of great social, intellectual and political movements, a subtle change has been wrought for the simple reason that Boston is a port and the sea is the State's eastern boundary. Immigration has for over 200 years been pouring alien people into Boston until the State of Massachusetts has taken a place apart from Vermont, Maine, New Hampshire and Rhode Island. In these latter States the social conditions exemplified by the term "New England" are making their last stand. But Massachusetts is as polyglot as New York and Illinois.

Frankfort.—While dogs are growing scarce in Kentucky, according to the returns of County Assessors made to the Auditor's office, the survivors are vicious, judging from the increased number of sheep killed by them, as shown by claims presented against the State. Also dogs are becoming discriminating in their taste for mutton and are killing higher priced sheep than ever before. One claim has come in for six sheep valued at $12 each. The total amount of claims is running higher than for this time last year. The number of dogs has fallen off 16,937 from last year, when there were 143,688. This year the Assessors have made returns on 127,651.

Harrodsburg.—The grand jury at Harrodsburg returned seven indictments against Tom Dwyne, a farmer of Rose Hill precinct, of Mercer county, between forty and fifty years of age. He was arrested several months ago on warrants issued at the instance of his two eldest daughters, both under twenty-one years of age, who have become mothers. At his examining trial he was held over without bail to await action of the grand jury. There was talk of lynching at that time. The threats subsided, though much feeling against the accused prevails in the vicinity of his home.

Louisville.—The climax of a campaign for money to finance the missionary enterprises of the Disciples of Christ was reached in the announcement that all the national missionary societies—foreign, American and woman's—would unite to raise three million dollars in the next five years. This vast sum is additional to the regular contributions of the churches to these societies.

Nearly $800,000 on the first million has been pledged during the past year in amount not less than $500, and about $200,000 more has been offered on condition that the second million is secured. One gift of $50,000 was reported on the first million.

His Hands Would Be Tied.

Suppose, if your imagination can carry you that far, that Roosevelt should be elected, he would be the loneliest executive that ever occupied the White House. With an inimical Congress and both parties against him he would be powerless either for good or evil, and all that he could do would be to blow and bluster. The next Congress is going to be Democratic and give cordial support to Wilson and to a redemption of the party pledges.

From what well-posted politicians from Eastern Kentucky say, the candidacy of John D. White, the "Crested Jayhawker" of the mountains, for Judge of the Court of Appeals in the Seventh appellate district, makes certain the election of Judge C. C. Turner, of Mt. Sterling, by a handsome plurality. Mr. White has an extensive personal following in the mountains and is backed by a large element of the Bull Moose adherents. Judge A. J. Kirk, of Johnson county, who is leading the Republicans here, it is said, can hardly keep up with the defections from his ranks, they are coming so fast.

WEST VIRGINIA NEIGHBORS.

DOINGS OF PEOPLE WHO LIVE JUST ACROSS THE RIVER.

A large portrait of Dr. H. D. Hatfield was removed from a Progressive meeting at Charleston a few nights ago, because it proved objectionable to the principal speaker, the leader of the anti-graft crusade in California, Francis J. Henry.

Elhott Artis, who was sentenced at Huntington to serve an eighteen year term in the West Virginia penitentiary for the murder of a woman named Hall at Catlettsburg some three years ago, has filed writ of habeas corpus, stating that a different judge should have tried his case and asking for a new trial.

An examination for Rural Letter Carriers was held at Wayne P. O. on Saturday, Oct. 12th. The following is a list of applicants: Wm. T. Workman, Freelin Lambert, Jos. C. Strother, Lonnie Bowen, John W. Philips, Sherman Osburn, Chas. W. Keck, James V. Darling, Albert Ronk, Pendleton H. Brumfield and Ossie Ribaby.

Hon. John T. McGraw, of Grafton, and Democratic Committeeman recently stated in a letter to State Chairman Stewart W. Walker that he would be a candidate in the post election primary for United States Senator. This primary will be held in December provided that the Democrats have a majority in the next session of the Legislature.

A passenger on N. & W. train No. 18 running from Portsmouth to Williamsburg took a straw vote of the other passengers and the train crew which resulted as follows: Wilson 25; Roosevelt 4; Taft 3; Debs 1. Three passengers refused to express their choice. This is only one of many straw votes that have been taken in the state, all show the same result; Wilson is far in the lead.

The County Republican Executive Committee at the eleventh hour and the fiftyninth minute has filled all the vacancies on the Wayne county ticket. S. C. Tabor was given the nomination for the two year term of County Commissioner and Felix Flannery has at last been prevailed upon to accept the nomination for House of Delegates. It has been an uphill business with the Republicans to find men to run for the various offices, for the candidates know that they have no chance of winning.

Taft on the Third Termers.

That the third term movement is not founded on any one principle or for that matter on any principle at all, but merely for the gratification of one man's ambition and vengeance; that it would go to pieces if its remarkable leader should die; that its crazy quill platform is made up of anything and everything to catch votes; that it is more socialistic than anything suggested in the countries of Europe, and that it is destined to defeat are some of the charges that President Taft brings against Colonel Roosevelt and his so-called Progressive party. That these charges are true, few will deny but almost as strong an indictment can be found against the Republican party which has fostered the interests at the expense of the people, wrung taxes from them on the necessities of life and pursued a policy of making the rich richer and the poor poorer. It has sinned away its day of grace and just as sure as November comes the unworthy servants will be scourged from the temple.

The Democrats will have much to be thankful for on next Thanksgiving Day.

WHO THEY ARE.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the new leader of Democracy and probable next mistress of the White House, is perhaps the most interesting woman in the United States today. This is inevitable—not because she wishes it, for she does not—and is as firm as a rock in her conviction that being the wife of a public man does not necessitate nor call for a woman's becoming a publicity seeker. She successfully resisted all appeals of photographers and interviews until Mr. Wilson's nomination as Democratic candidate for the presidency was an fait accompli. This modesty is easily traced to her southern ancestry and training and is characteristic also of her distinguished husband.

She was born Ellen Louise Axson, daughter of a Presbyterian divine of Savannah, Ga., whose family, so far as he knows, is the only one of the name in America.

Like Mr. Wilson, she has one brother and one sister living, all in the same literary circle as the doctor and herself.

In this atmosphere of learning Mrs. Wilson could hardly be expected to be other than she is—widely read, broadminded and charitable, devoted to her home and the principles for which it stands.

She has marked ability as an artist, and it is said that a portrait painter of ability was spoiled when she married the young barrister who had then given up the practice of his profession to specialize on the subject that has made him a presidential nominee.

Mrs. Wilson's three daughters—Misses Margaret Woodrow Wilson, Jessie Woodrow Wilson and Eleanor Randolph Wilson—possess the mental characteristics of their father and their mother's artistic temperament, combined in such a way as to give zest to every moment of their lives and protection from the follies of the world. They form, indeed, an ideal family circle, one that it would be well for every American household to emulate.

Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall, wife of the vice presidential nominee of the Democratic party, is a keen student of affairs and as they constant companion of her husband has had an exceptional opportunity of specializing on human nature. A very practical and far-reaching result of this peculiar interest in the larger family of the state—she has no children of her own—is found in the long list of humanitarian bills passed by the Indiana legislature during her husband's regime as governor. A bill to curtail child labor heads the list, which numbers twenty, and includes almost every legal correction for the immediate relief of labor, especially for that pertaining to women and children.

The Marshall home, like that of the Wilsons, is a home of books, and yet one does not feel "bookish" within its walls. On the contrary, one feels very much at home there the moment Mrs. Marshall appears upon the scene, and, if possible, more so when Mr. Marshall comes in.

They are such chums, this "tender hearted" governor and his wife, and where one is the other is pretty sure to be found. They have traveled all over the country together, and if the Woman's National Democratic league has anything to do with it they will soon be going to Washington together.

Mrs. Marshall is honorary vice president of the league and keenly interested in its work, not because it is part of the campaign, but because she recognizes the permanency of the movement to educate women in the principles of democracy.

SCOTT'S EMULSION is not a patent medicine, but is nature's body-nourishment with curative, upbuilding properties and without a drop of drug or alcohol. It contains superior cod liver oil, the hypophosphites of lime and soda with glycerine, and is so delicately emulsified that it enters the system without digestive effort—builds, tones and sustains.

After croup, whooping cough, measles and other child ailments it is nature's ally in restoring health.

After gripe or pneumonia it imparts strength and health, and for colds, coughs, sore, tight chests and throat troubles SCOTT'S EMULSION gives the greatest relief known.

Serious Kidney Disease Treated By an Old-Fashioned Doctor

S. B. HARTMAN, M. D.

In 1880 I was practicing medicine in Millersville, Pennsylvania, a thriving farming community. A prominent citizen of that locality called at my office one day in a very feeble condition. So much so he had to be assisted in alighting from his wagon.

I found on questioning him that he had been afflicted for about two years. He had consulted various doctors, among them a specialist from Philadelphia. They pronounced his disease to be Bright's disease of the kidneys. He was gradually failing in strength, losing flesh rapidly, and altogether presented a very pitiable spectacle, the remnant of a once strong and happy man.

I had been treating a neighbor of his successfully. This neighbor had highly recommended me and thus it was he had come to me.

He told me that the doctors had practically given up his case as hopeless and he felt free to consult any other physician. I hesitated to take the case, as I felt sure I could not do anything more than the other physicians had done. I told him so, yet he insisted upon my prescribing. I was a graduate of the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, and as one of the consulting physicians had been a professor in that college it seemed to me quite unlikely that I would be able to do any more than had been done, but I prescribed what seemed to be the best thing under the circumstances.

He went away and in a week he returned saying he was no better, that he was still losing ground. He judged that he had taken the same medicine before. No doubt he had. But he wished me to prescribe again. I did so.

This went on for about two months, the patient failing all the time, and I was becoming thoroughly discouraged with the case.

One day the patient said to me, "Doctor, why don't you give me the medicine you gave my neighbor? We all thought he would die, but your medicine cured him. This was why I came to you. Why not give me the same medicine you gave him?"

"But," I said, "your neighbor did not have kidney disease. It was a bowel complaint that I prescribed for in his case. I remember I gave him the Neutralizing Mixture that I make a great deal of use of in bowel diseases."

"Well, I want some of the same medicine you gave him. It worked wonders with him and I believe it will with me."

"But," I said, "this is not a medicine for kidney disease."

"Well, since you seem to be like the rest of the doctors, you cannot help me, why not try the medicine that helped my neighbor?"

After some hesitation I concluded to give him a bottle of it. In ten days he returned. He at once began to berate me in no complimentary words, saying:

"You knew very well this medicine would help me. You held it back merely to get more fees for treating me. From the first the medicine has helped me and I have made rapid improvement. If I could have had this medicine a year ago I should have been saved a great deal of expense and loss of time."

I replied that I was glad the medicine had helped him. I was somewhat confused by his brusque manner and rough speech. I gave him another bottle of medicine. Did not see him again for about three weeks. Once more he called at my office for another bottle of medicine, which was his last call. A month or so afterwards a neighbor of his called and got a bottle of the same medicine, saying that my patient was practically a well man, attending to his duties about his large farm.

I had given him the Neutralizing Mixture which was a remedy that I had used before only for bowel diseases. The same remedy that has since been sold under the name of Peruna. I could not quite understand how it was that Peruna should operate so beneficially in such seemingly different diseases. I had not yet grasped the correct philosophy of disease. I did not then clearly comprehend that catarrh may affect the kidneys as well as the bowels. Nothing of that sort was taught in the books in those days. It took me years before I clearly comprehended that catarrh was a disease liable to attack any organ of the body.

Catarrh is a disease of the mucous membranes. The mucous membranes line every organ, duct and cavity in the body. Thus it is catarrh may settle anywhere where there is a mucous membrane.

Peruna is my remedy for all these cases. I insist upon it, however, that Peruna is not a cure-all. I use it for just one disease, catarrh. But as catarrh is liable to affect so many different places, disturb so many different functions, derange so many different organs, it does seem to many people as if I regarded Peruna as a cure-all.

The above narrative is simply one of the many cases in my early practice that brought me to comprehend the wonderful efficacy of Peruna in such a variety of diseases. The kidneys may be affected by other diseases than catarrh, but the average case of kidney disease is catarrh of the kidneys. All cases of Bright's disease begin with catarrh of the kidneys. This being true, and it also being true that Peruna is a catarrh remedy, it follows that a great many cases of kidney disease would be benefited by Peruna.

PERUNA SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS. SPECIAL NOTICE—Many persons are making inquiries for the old-time Peruna. To such would say, this formula is now put out under the name of KA-TAR-NO, manufactured by KA-TAR-NO Company, Columbus, Ohio. Write them and they will be pleased to send you a free booklet.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President,
WOODROW WILSON, of New Jersey
For Vice President,
THOS. R. MARSHALL, of Indiana.
For Congress,
W. J. FIELDS, of Carter County.
For Appellate Judge,
C. C. TURNER, of Montgomery.

Warren county will plant a coffee tree on the State arboretum at Frankfort. Hope there will be no grounds for complaint.

Since 1906 wages have increased 20 per cent. This sounds good but the cost of living here, in the same period of time, increased 60 per cent.

West Virginia Democrats have detectives in Mingo county looking out for the election frauds so common there. If practiced this year there will be something doing.

President Taft has vetoed two tariff reduction bills passed by the present Congress, and thus prevented us from getting cheaper clothing, cheaper sugar and cheaper farming implements.

The war in the Balkans is affording sport for the pert paragraphers of the press. The Louisville Times wants you to "keep your eye on the sanjak of Novi-pazar, likewise on the vilayet of Kussovo and the pashalik of Philippopolis.

Chairman Camden is justly proud of the fact that Kentucky citizens were the first to pay their quota of the Democratic national campaign expenses. $25,000 was the amount asked for and Kentucky has already sent $28,000.

Vice-Chairman S. W. Huger is putting in his entire time at the Democratic Campaign Headquarters and his experience and successful conduct of other campaigns make his suggestions and assistance peculiarly profitable. He is an original Wilson man and his enthusiasm for his favorite is contagious.

Judge Turner, of Mt. Sterling, is better equipped for the Appellate bench than either of the other candidates. He had six years experience in the Court of Appeals and is a high class gentleman, such as we need there. He could not be influenced by politics or personal interests in the discharge of his duties. Every Democrat who is away from home should come to vote for him.

No Democrat who can possibly get to the polls should remain away on Nov. 5th. Every vote will help to swell the total popular majority of Woodrow Wilson, whether cast in Kentucky or elsewhere. Then you will want to say in after life that you voted for Wilson. Also, you will at the same time vote for Judge Turner, for Judge of the Court of Appeals, who can be elected by a full Democratic vote.

The wounding of Col. Roosevelt at Milwaukee will have a distinct effect upon the Pennsylvania election. Many of the "Bull Moose" supporters were on the verge of returning to the Republican ranks, but the shot fired by a crank caused them to return to the Colonel. The Democrats believe that Roosevelt and Taft now will split the normal Republican majority so that the Democrats may carry the strong "stand-pat" State.

No man is living up to the demands of good citizenship while he stays away from the ballot box. In a government like ours, where the legislators, State and national, are elected by the suffrage of the people, the man claiming to be a good citizen is failing to make good his claim unless he goes to the polls and votes in all elections involving the choosing of officers, from school trustees to Congressman. It is a bounden duty which he cannot shake off or evade. He must meet it by either helping with his ballot to elect efficient and worthy rulers or M. G. Wat by helping to elect the vicious man M. F. Conley office by the withholding of his Aug. Snyder vote.—Texas Christian Advocate.

G. R. Burgess,
Asst. Cashier

Less than two weeks remain before the election. At present there is every indication of Democratic success, but things can happen in that short time to turn the tide. We do not believe it possible that anything can turn the tide from Wilson, but we should take nothing for granted. Every Democrat who loves his country and his party should get on the firing line and remain on duty until the close of the polls November 5th.

The past year was a very bad one from a business standpoint. Can any of you recall a much harder one? It is only within the past few weeks that a better feeling and a better tone has been evident. The enormous crops, the scarcity and high price of cattle, the activity caused by moving the crops, and the large production of gold have contributed to the better times. The election of Woodrow Wilson has been conceded and accepted as practically a settled fact all over the country during all this period of business revival. There is no uncertainty, no scare, no fear of the result. Never before has the outlook for business been better. The country feels that it is certain to get relief from the unequal burdens afflicted by the outrageous tariff laws and the manufacturers probably realize that they can no longer stem the tide and are ready to surrender the graft.

A prominent citizen of this community was in Canada not a great while ago. Being a farmer his attention was attracted to farming implements on sale at a large store. Deering mowing machines, made only in the United States, were offered for $26. The price in the United States for exactly the same kind of mower, was $45. The Deering rake, made and sold in the United States at $18 was shipped to Canada and sold for $9.95. Oliver chilled plows, made in Kentucky, were priced at $5.75, while at that time the same kind of plow was being sold to our farmers for $9.

It is hardly necessary to tell you that this enormous difference, this theft, if you please, is made possible only by the high "protective" tariff inflicted upon the common people of the United States by the manufacturers, who own and control the Republican party.

As a matter of business a manufacturer should be a Republican. As a matter of business or principle nobody else should be. The skill displayed by the manufacturers and their hirelings in fooling the common people into supporting their ticket all these years while picking their pockets will stand in history as a remarkable feat. Of course, they have not fooled enough people to elect their tickets, but the job has been completed by buying and bullying the negroes and purchasing the floating element.

While W. J. Bryaa was speaking at Delphi, O., recently some smart alec who probably didn't know him very well asked him some questions about panics. Bryan read a chapter from his "panic primer." Answering the threats of a panic under a Democratic administration. Bryan asked, "How many panics have we had since the Republican party got into power in 1860? Three. When was the first panic? In 1878. Who was President? U. S. Grant, a Republican. When was the second panic? In 1893. Who was President? Grover Cleveland. When did we have the third panic? In 1907. Who was President? Theodore Roosevelt, and he had a Republican House and Senate under him. What are the chances of a panic under a Democratic administration? Less than one half as great as under a Republican administration.

"What are the chances of a panic under a Republican administration?" More than twice as great as under a Democratic administration, for two thirds of the panics came under the Republican administrations and one third under a Democratic administration that was at the time operating under Republican law. Are Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt afraid of a panic in case of Democratic success? Not much. If they were they would not have separated, but would have stood together to prevent it.

And decide for yourself. Here is one case of it:

A Wellman, butcher, Main Cross St., Louisa, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are the finest kidney remedy I ever used. I am glad to recommend them publicly. My kidneys gave me great annoyance for years. The action was irregular and the kidney secretions were unnatural. I also had backache. Different medicines I used gave me no benefit until I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. In a short time I began to feel better, and before long I was strong and well. I never tire of praising this excellent preparation."

Dependable Suit Styles
$15.00 to $75.00

LOOK through our stock is the best argument we can produce in asking that your suit selection be made at our store. First: note the range of prices. For $15.00 you can secure as good a value as is ever offered at that price and the largest assortment of styles and colors shown in this city. We recommend our suits ranging from $25.00 to $35.00 as being ideal for the average purchaser and those who desire something higher in price will find an excellent range of styles and colors up to $75.00 in price.

The variety of sizes and styles offered is another feature that is sure to please every visitor. We have sizes from all the misses sizes through all the regular numbers up to 46 and in addition to this have a beautiful line specially designed for stout figures that range in size from 37 to 49. Note the beautiful fabrics and the careful tailoring on these suits when inspecting the stock.

When it comes to leading abades we have them all. Beautiful shades in navy blues, rich autumnal tones in browns, beautiful greys and a line of mixtures and suitings unequalled for variety and utility. These are trimmed in the most becoming fashion, much braid and beautiful buttons being features of the season's trim.

You can make no mistake in selecting from our stock. Every suit shown is desirable, it is right in price and values and is shown in such a variety of style effects as to insure a selection of the most becoming type. The fitting and wearing qualities of our suits in past seasons indicates our ability to please you in the present selection.

What good reason can the average purchaser give for waiting until the end of the active season of purchasing and then making a selection from the left-overs from stock. A selection now means more time for wear this season besides giving you choice from a fresh assortment of styles such as is found only in the beginning of the suit season.

OCTOBER 29 TO NOVEMBER 1.

Famous Musicians to Be Present.
Among Noted Speakers Are W. C.
Pearce, Rev. F. N. Palmer, Rev. W.
Fred Long and Various State Leaders and Divines.

The Forty-seventh Annual Convention of the Kentucky Sunday School Association will be held in Paducah, Oct. 29-Nov. 1. The state executive committee has put forth every effort to make this the greatest convention ever held in the state, and in formulating the program has secured experts covering every department of Sunday School endeavor. The pastor, the superintendent, the teacher, the pupil, the parent, all who are in any way interested in building up a true citizenship for our state and who desire to have the right influences come into the lives of the boys and girls, will find something helpful at the various sessions and conferences of the convention.

The music will be in charge of Professor E. O. Excell of Chicago, who will have as his pianist Professor A. W. Roper of Winona Lake, Ind. These two men led the music at the World's Sunday School Convention in Washing-

He will speak on such topics as "The What and How of Teacher Training," "The Adult Bible Class and Its Meaning to the World," "The Sunday School Organized," "The Bible in Action." At Clifton school Johnson county

there is an improvement league of sixty-three members.

George J. Bishop teacher at Bradford reports $20.56 raised at a festival.

Fred Steele teacher of Tarklin school reports $21 and a few cents raised at a pie supper. Foraker Cordile, teacher at Daviess reports something over $17 raised at a pie supper. Fellow teachers, what these teachers are doing you can do. We want every teacher who has raised any money for school purposes to let us know how they did it.

Nicholas county has enrolled every teacher, every trustee and fifteen citizens in the 9th Dist. Educational Association. Fellow teachers, let's get busy. We can equal if not excel

Nicholas. Remember Mason county alone beat us in attendance at Carlisle last year. Can we be content to stand back and allow Nicholas to carry the banner away from our very gateway. Not this alone, but can we miss the opportunity of hearing such men as Dr. Schaeffer for past twenty years State Supt. of schools in Penn., M. A. Shawkey

State Supt. of West Virginia, Dr.

Crabbs Pres. of East Ky. Normal

School, and Prof. T. J. Coates.

Compulsory School Law Enforced.

A man living on Blaine, near

Prosperity, by the name of Jonas

Payne, failed to send his children, who were between the ages of 6

and 13 years, to school regularly and this fact had to be made known of course, to the Supervisor of that territory, Miss Emma Thompson, as the Compulsory Law requires the full attendance of all children between those ages, except when actually sick.

The Supervisor notified the party and did all she could to cause him to send as they should, but to no purpose, so she saw they must be prosecuted as nothing else would cause him to send and reported to Supt. and Co. Board this fact, so a warrant was issued for Mr. Payne.

On Monday, Oct. 14 he was tried before Judge Boggs and fined the sum of $5.00 and was taken to jail to pay same. Now, this sum is the lowest penalty for first offense but they may be fined from $10.00 to $50.00 for each offense thereafter and cost of suit.

So, take warning, you who are thinking this law will not be enforced, for it certainly will, as you see it has been already.

Now this is business of the right kind, for if people know the law

no doubtless every man in the county does for it has been read in nearly every school in the county.

It is not every one, if they know the law and disobey it, just because they can, let them pay the price for their folly.

Correct Posture for Boys

A lot of attention is being given this subject by the Board of Education in one of our large Eastern Cities, because the correct carriage of the body is surely a disease preventive.

After a great deal of study it was discovered that while a large number of boys were round or stoop-shouldered, a great many only appeared so, and it was found that the clothes had a great deal to do with this seeming physical defect.

MOTHERS, have you ever felt that your boy was round shouldered? Perhaps he may be, but often it's not his shoulders—but the shoulders of his coat that make him appear so.

Northcott-Tate-Hagy Co.'s Clothes for Boys are tailored like the best made men's garments. The shoulders will show your boy in his natural manly pose.

Write to our Boys' Department if you cannot visit it and let us send you a suit or two on approval (approval shipments to the worthy.) There in the privacy of your own home away from the influence of the salesman, your own eyes will make the sale—and you'll approve of your choice after seeing the service they will give.

One of the features will be a message from Gov. Woodrow Wilson, the presidential nominee, which will be read to the assembled voters in every precinct in the State. All the county and precinct campaign chairmen are being enlisted in the closing rally movement.

A TIMELY TOPIC.

There is no more popular subject among the women of our land than home economics. Schools of all grades, woman's clubs and private classes are recognizing its importance and are making it a part of their regular work. The ladies of our town had the opportunity of hearing an interesting talk on this subject at the regular meeting of the literary club on last Friday by Mrs. C. L. Chamberlain, of Irvington, Ky., who is employed by the Commissioner of Agriculture of our State to organize clubs for the study of Home Economics.

A goodly number made up of members of the club, school girls and other ladies of the town greeted the speaker on her arrival at the club room in the college. She began her talk by explaining that the term, Home Economics means economy in the home; economy of time and strength by the use of labor-saving methods and appliances; economy of money by a knowledge of the nutritive value of foods and a knowledge of the composition and durability of textiles. Briefly, Home Economics teaches how to save time and money, strength and health for the better enjoyment of the highest things in life.

There are twelve subjects studied in the course, among which are the following: Principles of cookery, Food Values, House-building and Furnishing, Home Sanitation, Home Care of the Sick, and Textiles and Clothing. Of the literature for the course there is an abundant supply, fresh and up-to-date. Some of this must be purchased, some may be rented or borrowed under certain conditions, and some is free. The free literature can be obtained by writing to the Department of Agriculture and asking for the bulletins pertaining to Home Economics.

In this connection it is proper to say that the Literary Club before which Mrs. Chamberlain spoke on the occasion referred to is expecting to take up and consider work along the lines discussed on Friday afternoon. In order that the matter receive the consideration which it deserves a full attendance of the members of the club is desired and urged. Every member who can be present on the afternoon of Friday, October 25, is earnestly requested to attend at that time.
